

We are roasting our own turkeys right here in the bakery, in order to guarantee you the best turkey sandwich in town. At House of Bread, we couldn't serve our loyal customers processed meats. We pile high fresh roasted turkey, on fresh baked bread and top it with locally grown organic produce. We also use the same turkey meat to create all natural turkey noodle soup made with organic noodles. For our salad selections, you guessed it- we use the same fresh turkey, on a bed of organic lettuce and top it with our homemade croutons and salad dressing.

We have the same promise of 100% satisfaction or your money back on our lunch menu!
